

Full Service Solutions

March 2, 2015

Because each consultant within the firm is a specialist, we work in teams to develop and implement full service solutions of higher quality than generalist firms. This includes specialists in economics, finance, actuarial science, law and psychology.

To ensure full implementation of solutions we will project manage the delivery and partner with other specialist firms, such as equity administration and broking services.